

Post Seismic Deformation of the 1995 Sakhalin Earthquake

Shinzaburo Ozawa [1], Mikio Tobita [2], Satoshi Fujiwara [3], Hiroyuki Nakagawa [4], Makoto Murakami [5]

[1] Geographical Survey Institute, [2] Construction Coll., [3] GSI, Mizusawa, [4] Space Geodesy Lab., GSI, [5] Crustal Deformation Lab., The GSI

We estimate the fault movements of the 1995 Sakhalin earthquake and its post seismic deformation using InSAR data. The result shows post seismic slip of 20 to 50 cm in three regions on an estimated fault patch. The northern and the southern part show small slip at the time of the main shock.