

The latest activity of the Daguchi fault revealed by trenching survey.

Koji Fujita [1], Yuichi Sugiyama [2], Heitaro Kaneda [3], Masayoshi Tajikara [4], Tatsuro Chiba [5]

[1] Asia Air Survey Co.Ltd., [2] GSJ, [3] Earth and Planetary Sci., Kyoto Univ, [4] Dept.of Geogr.,Univ.of Tokyo, [5] Dept. of disaster prev., A.A.S.

<http://www.tk.airnet.ne.jp/tchiba/daguchi/daguchi>.

The Daguchi fault is a active fault trending NW-SE in south Tsuruga-city at Fukui Pref. We opened a trench and three pits near fault scarplet in the central part of the fault. Sevrsl vertical faults are clearly observed on the trench walls. The fault cut the organic layer, and is covered by soil sediments. The timing of the latest faulting of the southern part of the fault is estimated to 15-17c.