

Recent Seismic Activities on Hypocenter Data by JMA

Hashimoto Tetsuo Seismological and Volcanological department, Japan Meteorological Agency

Japan Meteorological Agency(JMA) has processed seismic data provided from almost all seismic networks in Japan since October, 1997. We show the earthquake detectability of the network, and hypocenters calculated with methods as followings. Station correction of arrival times, fixed station group or, focal depth estimated from depth phases.