

The acceleration of downflowing field-aligned electron beams in the auroral diffuse region

Risa Yoshioka[1], Toshifumi Mukai[1], Wataru Miyake[2]

[1] ISAS, [2] CRL

The upflowing and downflowing field-aligned electron beams are observed in the diffuse region of the auroral oval. We conclude that the downflowing field-aligned electron beams are ionospheric origin and are accelerated at the above the upflowing acceleration region.