

Pothole Erosion in Yukawa River in the Southeast slope of Mt.Asama,Nagano,JAPAN(Part2)

Masayuki Toda[1], Masayuki Osanai[2]

[1] NMS, [2] Kokusai Co.,LTD.

The yukawa River flows across Mt.Asama Southeast slope into Chikuma River.

The studies area is the Yui and Sugiuri near Naka-Karuizawa station on Shinano Railway in Nagano Pref.There are about 110 and 160 potholes on the rock terraces. The present results classified Yui and Sugiuri poteholes group.

The yukawa River flows across Mt.Asama Southeast slope into Chikuma River.

The studies area is the Yui and Sugiuri near Naka-Karuizawa station on Shinano Railway in Nagano Pref.There are about 110 and 160 potholes on the rock terraces. The present results classified Yui and Sugiuri poteholes group.