

J029-004

Room: IC

Time: May 29 14:15-14:30

The 818 earthquake described in Ruiju Kokushi, and its geologic evidence exposed on the southern foot of Akagi Volcano

Yukio Hayakawa[1], Tei Morita[2], Emi Nakashimada[3], Nitaka Kabe[4]

[1] Faculty of Ed, Gunma Univ, [2] Faculty of Education, Gunma Univ, [3] Faculty of Edu, Gunma Univ., [4] Niisato Village Office, Gunma

<http://www.edu.gunma-u.ac.jp/~hayakawa/news/2001/niisato/>

Conspicuous geologic features such as earth cracks, debris avalanche, lahars, and liquefaction are exposed on the southern foot of Akagi Volcano. They are correlated with the 818 earthquake described in Ruiju Kokushi.