

Q037-001

Room: C510

Time: May 29 9:30-9:45

A preliminary report on pumice-fall deposits from Aso volcano in the past 90,000 years, Southwest Japan

Yasuo Miyabuchi[1], Hideki Takada[2], Hideo Hoshizumi[3], Kazunori Watanabe[4]

[1] Kyushu Res. Ctr., Forestry & Forest Prod. Res. Inst., [2] Cultural Assets, Board of Edu., Kumamoto Pref, [3] GSJ, AIST, [4] Kumamoto Univ.

<http://infofarm.affrc.go.jp/~yasuo/>

Pumice-fall deposits from Aso central cones, southwestern Japan were examined in order to construct tephrostratigraphy and eruptive history in the past 90,000 years.