

Meteor radio observation by modulated signal

Sumio Nakane[1]

[1] NMS

In meteor radio observation that uses an amateur radio frequency(HRO), it is done by transmitting a continuous wave. The time required to spread by transmitting the electromagnetic radiation to which this is modulated is measured. The distance that comes flying by this can be measured. It reports on a basic experiment.