

Y162-001

Room: 101B

Time: May 20 13:45-14:00

Geological condition and landform of the Tobata landslide on the Upper Azusa River

Kuniyasu Mokudai[1]

[1] GSJ, AIST

<http://staff.aist.go.jp/k-mokudai/>

The Tobata landslide has been occurred May 8th 1757 on the Upper Azusa river. The collapse earth and sand buried the valley in Azusakawa, and landsilde dam was formed. The landslide dam collapsed after two days.