Education and outreach programs of the Japan Association for Quaternary Research

Takeyuki Ueki¹⁺, Kunihiko Endo², Arata Momohara³, Sumiko KUBO⁴, Kiyohide Mizuno⁵, Kuniyasu Mokudai⁶

The Japan Association for Quaternary Research contributes to earth science education as school education and natural history education as life-long education, to facilitate liberal arts and literacy for students and citizens. Public symposia on new definition of Quaternary, future perspective of earth science education and promotion of natural history education for last several years. Network is a key concept of scientific society outreach, such as between-society cooperation, collaboration between society, school teachers and citizens.

Keywords: Japan Association for Quaternary Research, between-society cooperation, earth science education, natural history education, accountability, network